

RARE TRUE LOVE

And I want you so as I've wanted you forever, baby....baby
And I need you so as I've needed you forever, baby
I need you for all my life.

Every moment of day I dream of you and I give you my thoughts
to have you near to my soul,
near to me as you were here.
And I call your perfumed presence (happy to make your sweetest acquaintance)
and I see you as it looks at a rare true love.

Rare true love.... (instrumental) Rare true love.

And I catch you so as I've caught you forever, baby....baby and I love you so as I've loved you forever, baby
I love you with all my might.

If my phone is gone out of order
call me anyway by something so ever so we'll stay near, near to me as you were here.
If my letters aren't many, I'll try to make better
cause I'll come there and I'll love you,
my rare true love.

Rare true love ... Rare true love ... Rare true love ...
